

Ten grips. One perfect fit.

Ten 3D-printed grip sleeves for your pickleball paddle: one shape underneath, ten different surfaces on top. Print each in one solid PLA colour.

THE HANDLE

A slim sleeve that slides over your paddle handle: closed at the butt, open at the throat, 132.8 mm long and cut to the exact 32.06 × 26.04 mm bore of the reference handle. The fit is identical on all ten designs, only the surface changes, so you can swap textures freely. A smooth collar at each end keeps the edges kind to your hand.

WHERE THE IDEAS COME FROM

Each design borrows a pattern from somewhere else: braided rope, brickwork, cut gemstones, jigsaw pieces, neural networks, carbon cloth, dragonfly wings, contour maps, river pebbles and honeycomb. Every one is real 3D relief, so it reads in a single colour through light and shadow, and you feel it in the hand.

Ten ways to hold on.

Two views and a close-up of every design, shown as it prints: one PLA colour, no paint, no multi-colour swaps.

01 VORTEX GRIP

Braided rope and woven straps: crossing strands that bite into the palm from every angle.

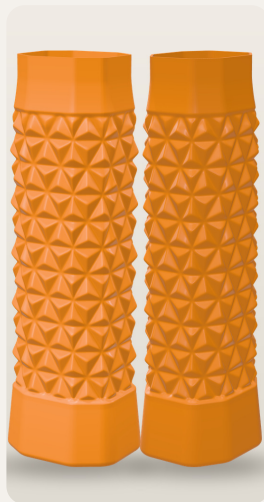

46.5 g · Ultraviolet

02 CELLULAR MOD

Brickwork and stacked stone: staggered cells, with a few recessed pockets for optional inserts.

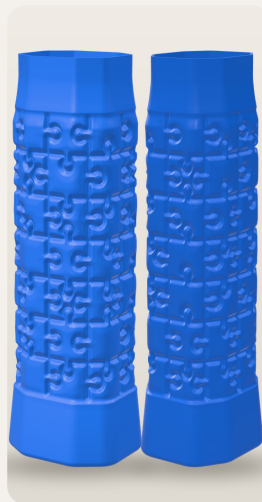

47.7 g · Arctic White

03 TESSEL-BLOCK

Cut gemstones and folded paper: faceted pyramids that catch the light and the fingertips.

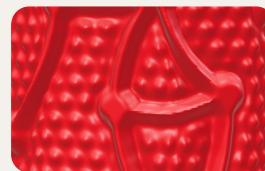

46.4 g · Sunset Orange

04 LOGIC-GRIP

Jigsaw puzzles: interlocking pieces with mushroom knobs, every row locked to the next.

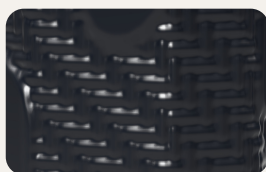

48.0 g · Court Blue

05 NEURO-TREAD

Neural networks: nodes joined by curved ridges that rise above a field of fine bumps.

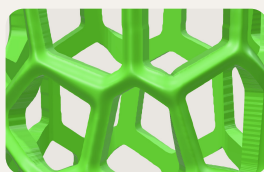

46.5 g · Signal Red

06 CARBON MATRIX

Carbon-fibre cloth: a real over-under twill, the finest texture in the set, with smooth patches.

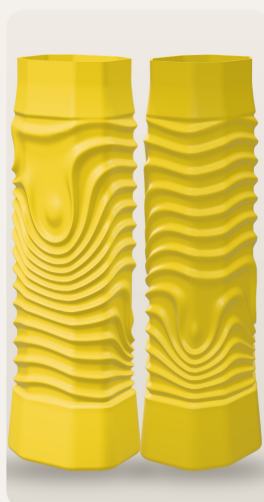

48.1 g · Jet Black

07 VORONOI-CORE

Dragonfly wings and cracked earth: a rib lattice with open windows. The lightest of the ten.

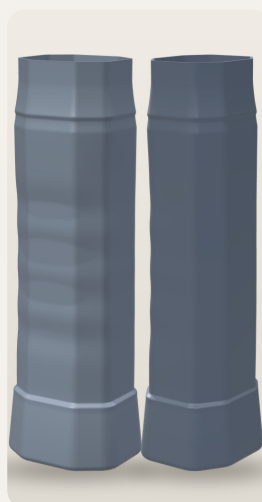

40.2 g · Pickle Green

08 TOPO-FLOW

Contour maps and tree rings: flowing ridges that wrap the handle around four wood-grain knots.

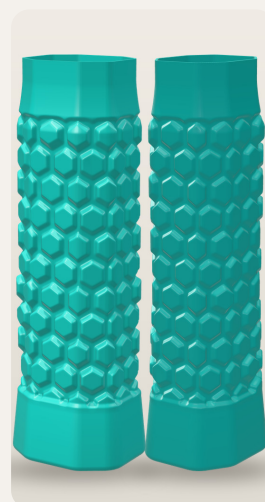

47.8 g · Citrus Yellow

09 ERGO-CONTOUR

A river-worn pebble: a smooth swell with finger flutes and a thumb rest shaped for the hand.

47.0 g · Slate Grey

10 HEXA-MOD

Honeycomb: individual hex pads on four height levels, a pattern you can feel as well as see.

47.0 g · Teal
